MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Greetings! It is with delight and commitment that I serve as Chairman to this outreach agency, Exodus to Excellence, Inc. Today, there is no issue more important to youth, parents, teachers, politicians, volunteers, and corporations than supporting the Net Generation youth and young adults in this digital culture. We must continue to promote strong values and develop excellence while allowing our innovative young persons to teach us their digital culture. I look favorably to your partnership in ushering this young generation in excellence as they will very soon create the society and workplace of tomorrow.

We have a track record of enrichment programs during summer camps, school year workshops and after school enhancement labs.

Programs

Net Generation Excellence (NGX):

Building excellence for our youth through integrated and innovative delivery of skills in:

- academics (i.e. math, sciences, information technology, communication, test preps);
- leadership (i.e. influence, decision making, cultural diversity, social responsibility);
- life skills (i.e. financial literacy , time management, stress management, conflict resolution, independence); and
- work skills (i.e. presentation, interview, project management, professional behaviors).

Youth for Youth (Y4Y): Youth advice and input is critical to their own success. It is integrated in all aspects of program development and delivery. They create, write, teach, counsel, lead teams, and manage projects.

Provide mentorship to young persons to allow for expanded choices. Bridge the digital divide for socio-economically disadvantaged persons to ensure their competency and successful competitiveness in the workplace and society.

Center of Research and Practice (CORP):

We plan to use our experiences, lessons learned and studies as models and baselines for Best Practices. We will use these repeatable models locally, nationally and internationally.
